New Holy Cards

Holy cards of Christ the King are available in the back of the church. We have begun saying the "Prayer for Civil Leaders" regularly as a community.

Renovations Coming

1. The HVAC replacement was postponed and is now scheduled to begin on Monday.
2. Parking lot work will begin Friday, Nov. 9. Please be warned: this will create a mess, but your safety will be a top priority. Traffic patterns may be altered temporarily. The mess will only be cleaned up in the spring.

Our New Volunteer Coordinator

A warm welcome to Mrs. Michelle Blake who stepped forward. We are very glad to have her on the team. She and her husband James, son Christopher moved to Richmond this summer from NC. As she becomes acclimatized, she will start reaching out to you. Welcome Michelle!

We'd love to share your information on our Business Board and our parish website. Please submit a flyer to the parish office: 8.5" x 5.5" max. For info, contact Simone Jansen: 7jansens@gmail.com or 804-878-3527
Business Co-Op Fair: Sun. 18 Nov., 9:45—11 am. Our parish is full of business owners who provide a wide variety of services or products. Join us to see how you can support our parishioner-owned businesses. For info or to reserve your space contact Simone.

Veterans Day Coin Show Sun., Nov. 11

After both morning Masses in Fr. Adrian Hall, hosted by Michael Rowland & Maria Liberatore with a wide variety of coins. All veterans can enter a drawing for a silver dollar—no purchase necessary. Anyone can purchase tickets in a separate drawing for several silver coins. A portion of the proceeds from this sale goes to the Fraternity of St. Peter.

Holy Land Pilgrimage
See Fliers on Back Table

Maher and Jane Alatrash, the couple who come to sell Olive Wood Carvings, have organized a pilgrimage to the Holy Land. (I spoke with a priest who had been to the Holy Land 5 times and said her trip was the best.) This pilgrimage is limited to 50 (one bus load). Please consider now whether you'd like to come. I want to give you first chance; we need to advertise outside the parish soon to make sure we have enough to go.

Home for the Holidays

Michele Morris is organizing a Thanksgiving potluck dinner at St. Joseph's on Nov. 22nd in the St. Joseph's Room. For more information or to RSVP, contact Michele at magdalenedivlove@gmail.com

Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

We need the example of the saints. Fr. Paul Rague-neau, SJ, on March 1, 1649, only two weeks before the martyrdom of St. Jean de Brébeuf, put pen to paper to describe the martyrdom of Fr. Anthony Daniel, SJ.: "The latest disaster to strike us – last July – was the most severe of all. Fr. [Anthony] Daniel in the village of St. Joseph had barely finished mass, his Christians [of the Huron people] being yet in the chapel, when at the war-cry of the enemy [the Iroquois], they seized their weapons. Unmindful of his own danger, he hurried into the cabins to baptize the sick, and assist the aged and the children. Finally he fell mortally wounded by a musket shot and pierced with arrows. They vented their rage on his lifeless body and there was hardly one of them who did not add a new wound to his corps. They then set the church on fire and flung his body into the flames which consumed his body so that not even a bone was left; indeed, he could not have found a more glorious funeral pyre."

"The progress of Christianity has surpassed our brightest hopes. We baptized this year 1,700 Christians, without counting those baptized by Fr. Daniel. These Christians are by no means, as one might imagine, ignorant of divine truths or unprepared for the mysteries of our Faith. Many have a profound grasp of spiritual truths; these are some whom even Religious might envy for their virtue, piety and holiness ..." (Shadows over Huronia, Paul Ragueneau, p. 35).

May we be worthy to suffer also for the name of Christ: "Blessed are ye, when they shall revile you, ... for My sake: be glad and rejoice, for your reward is very great in heaven," (Mt. 5:12).

God love you,

Fr. R. Novokowsky, fssp
