Casual Ballroom Dance—Mon. 22 April, 6 pm

Fr. Adrian Hall. Gordon & Kate Bratt will teach the basic dance steps, review dance etiquette, and then call out the steps as needed. Educational and fun! Beginners and families welcome—the small children can play on the side. Bring an hor d'oeuvres or a bottle of wine to share. Admission is free; free-will offering. Common clean-up. Gordon & Kate are brother and sister-in-law to Meghan Doran, parents to 6, and professional ballroom instructors.

New Parish Pictorial Directory

We need a new one—it's been 7 years already. These are very useful; please participate. Our new version will be in both print and digital formats. It will also be updatable. By sitting for a FREE professional photo session, you'll receive 1) a free 8x10 print, 2) a printed photo directory, 3) a digital photo directory.

Reserve your session now! A link is provided on our website or see the sign-up table next Sunday, 28 April during the K of C Breakfast. You will receive a reminder this week.

Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Christ has won a victory—or has He? Did His brutal death seem like a victory? There had been darkness and an earthquake; the temple veil was ripped from top to bottom. All such phenomenon seem important to believers, but can easily be explained away or quickly forgotten. Indeed, the Roman soldiers recognized something special had happened: “Now the centurion and they that were with him watching Jesus, having seen the earthquake, and the things that were done, were sore afraid, saying: Indeed this was the Son of God,” (Mt 27:54). But this sentiment did not make great waves. Annas and Caiaphas remained in power; Pilate remained the Roman governor of Judea; Herod Antipas remained the tetrarch of Galilee; the apostles remained in fear.

Where was His victory? On the way to Emmaus, the disciples said, “But we hoped, that it was he that should have redeemed Israel,” (Lk 24:21). Their hopes and dreams had been dashed. They were consumed by self-pity. So much so, that when the women returned from the empty tomb with stories of an angel their report was held in suspicion.

How did our Lord react to their self-pity? “O foolish, and slow of heart to believe in all things which the prophets have spoken. Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and so to enter into his glory?” (Lk 24:25-26). Suffering was predicted as a cause of His glory.

Are we consumed by self-pity? Notre Dame is burning. Infanticide and euthanasia have joined the evil of abortion as the accepted law world-wide. Christ is being crucified anew. Where is Christ's victory?

Despite the public character of His public ministry and very public death, Christ operates almost in secret. “To you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God; but to the rest in parables, that seeing they may not see, and hearing may not understand,” (Lk 8:10).

Christ's victory over sin and death is a mystery! We have experienced THAT it is true. Sometimes we are at a loss to describe HOW it is true. Do we have the eyes to see the mysteries of the Kingdom of God? These eyes are not ordinary eyes. They are the eyes of
