

Dear Faithful, God has chosen us for you and you for us at this time in our lives, and for the foreseeable future. We want to be here for you! But since there are only 2 of us and close to 600 parishioners and I haven't seen Fr. Franco bilocate yet, we'll need your help for things to run smoothly and in an orderly fashion to best serve you. Below are a few pointers or reminders that will hopefully prove helpful:

-Office hours are from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The first hour that we step into the office, there are many messages left on the answering machine and many emails to go through. Then begins an important triage session with our secretary before we can go through all the pressing matters of the day.

-If you need to speak with one of the priests, please schedule an appointment through the secretary, mindful that there are only so many hours in a day. We will do our best. (Think and pray beforehand about what you need to discuss so we can be most helpful to you.)

-If a member of the faithful is in danger of death, we have a Sacramental emergency line. It is used for that sole purpose. Unless we are officiating at the altar, we are ready to drop everything to administer to our faithful.

-Please make use of the scheduled confession times. In charity, if you know a busy time is coming up, anticipate! I am always impressed when I come to the confessional at 6:30 a.m. and there is already someone in line. Please be aware that the priest saying Mass will need to exit the confessional at least 5 minutes before Mass starts. If confessions are heard during Mass, please be aware that the priest will step out of the confessional and adore during the time of the Consecration.

You and your families are in my prayers always, especially at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass!

Pastor's Corner

Dear Faithful,

What is a priest? -One who offers sacrifice.

What is a victim? -The thing being offered.

What is an altar? -The place where sacrifice is offered.

Our Lord and Savior came as Eternal High Priest. He offered Himself for sin as the only Victim capable of clearing such a debt. He was sacrificed on Calvary upon the altar of the Cross.

Through His priests, the same Sacrifice is rendered present upon our altars daily. The primary office and duty of a priest is to offer sacrifice for sin. This is the reason we are called priests and not ministers.

This is the sole purpose of our altar, our church building, our sanctuary, our facility, our scheduled times for confession, our scheduled times for adoration and devotions, our altar servers, our choir, our catechism classes, our hall, our parking lot, our playground, etc... The Sacrifice of Our Savior is the reason why you give so much of yourself to make this parish be what it is and why so many of you (an army of volunteers!) pour your blood, sweat and tears into it. The Sacrifice of Our Lord is the center.

This is especially the case for your FSSP Priests. According to our constitutions, the Sacrifice of Our Lord must be the center of our lives. It is where we draw everything from. [“The Sacrifice of the Mass is at the heart of the spirituality and the apostolate of the Fraternity of Saint Peter. The members of the Fraternity will live with the conviction that the entire effectiveness of their apostolate flows from the Sacrifice of Our Lord, which they daily offer” -FSSP Constitutions]. A priest cannot give what he does not have. He can be of most help to you if he is filled with God. An adequate preparation for a priest to approach the Altar of God requires the following: every day he must pray his breviary (about 1 hour and 20 minutes total), he must practice mental prayer (about an hour a day), he must consecrate time to spiritual reading to feed his prayer life, he must live a devotion to Our Blessed Mother, be faithful to the rosary- these are non-negotiables. Additionally, for FSSP priests, there are community exercises 3 times a day (recitation of the breviary and a meal in common). And last but certainly not least, our duties at our parish.
