

Corner Cont.

What does this look like, practically speaking, in my everyday life? Otherwise, our good intentions remain nice thoughts and ideas on a shelf, gathering dust.

Please know that all of you, your families and loved ones are in my daily prayers at the Altar of the Lord.

St. Bernadette Fund
Parishioners Helping Parishioners

St. Bernadette's family fell on hard times and were forced to live in accommodations considered too unhealthy for prisoners. Economic prosperity is only partially within our control. Gifts from this fund are made anonymously to parishioner families whose need is manifested in some way to the pastor. Disbursements are never made to individuals, but rather to cover expenses, i.e. a gas or water bill. Donations can be made using the Supplemental Envelopes; please clearly mark them “St. Bernadette Fund” and put them in the collection basket.

Apostolate of Mary, Mother of Priests

Every 3rd Saturday of the month this apostolate attends the 9 am Mass and then stays in the church to pray for vocations, priests, and seminarians. For info call Louise Caouette-Diman (804) 935-3399

Pastor's Corner

Dear Faithful,

St. John Vianney said [I am paraphrasing] that the very first moment of the day is crucial. If the devil owns that first moment, it is easy for him to get the rest of the day. St. Francis de Sales says our morning offering should be brief but full of fervor- a raising of the heart to God- and it should never ever be missed. Then, throughout the day, one can renew this giving, even in a few seconds, here and there and hopefully very often.

These two saints give us very practical advice in order to advance further in our relationship with Christ. In monastic life for instance, once the monk gets up, he is to be on his knees facing his crucifix and offering himself. He then proceeds to make his bed as well as he can as his first “work” of the day. The idea is that it is setting a tone for the rest of the day.

In spiritual life, to make any progress, things must be practical. One of the first realities is that, like any relationship, it takes time. Time management is essential. St. Teresa of Avila would be noticed smiling every time the clock sounded at the hour mark. When asked why, she answered that she was an hour closer to meeting her loving Savior. Time is something we will never get back. So, do we sit down with Our Lord on a regular basis, in front of the tabernacle if we can, and practically “map out” a structure to our days and especially dealing with the people the Lord has given us? He said: “Without me you can do nothing,” and also: “If you are weary and burdened, come to me, I will give you rest.” This act of going to Him is called our prayer life- and its regularity is essential [Everyday!]. Do I ever get to the end of a day and realize that the rosary, spiritual reading or my prayer sessions with the Lord went by the wayside? And yet how many minutes or hours were wasted on television shows or idly browsing the internet? If my life could be made into a caricature, what priority would it spell out?

Our Lord tells us: “Seek first the Kingdom of heaven, and all else will be given you”. May this be a very practical reality for us. Let us take time daily and map it out with Our Lord- what's the plan? St. John tells us: “My little children, let us not love in word, nor in tongue, but in deed, and in truth.” In other words:

Feeding the Hungry at St. Peter's Downtown

St. Joseph Parish will again provide dinner for the hungry on Wednesday, July 31st. We are serving barbecue, slaw, Caesar salad and cookies. Opportunities to participate are as follows:

Serving: Eight (8) volunteers are needed promptly at 4:30 pm until at least 6:30 pm.

Cooking: Recipe for the barbecue is on the volunteer board in Father Adrian Hall. If you volunteer to cook the barbecue, please have it to St. Joseph no later than 1:00 pm on July 31st or place it in the refrigerator in the hall kitchen the day before. If you bring it the day before, please clearly mark it for the soup kitchen. We need 10 people to volunteer to make one recipe amount.

Buying: The items that may be purchased and brought to the hall kitchen the day before are:

Hamburger rolls: We need 16 packages of the 8 count rolls

Cole Slaw: 15 quarts

Salad: We need 15 bags of salad. Last time we purchased the large Caesar salad kits from Costco and mixed them just prior to serving. It worked well and it was a hit. These kits contain the salad greens, croutons and dressing.

Cookies: We need a minimum of 120 large cookies. These can be purchased 60 per tray for $14.00 at Costco.

Milk: Two gallons of whole milk.

Barbecue Sauce: 10 bottles of the Kraft Original sauce.

Sign up sheets are on the volunteer board in Father Adrian Hall.

Once signups are complete, you will receive a confirmation email. If you sign up to serve, you will also receive additional instructions to help you prepare for the day. If you have any questions, please email Lorraine Hewitt: lredford@verizon.net
