

phonus of Liguori (below) to be the most approachable. The Hail Mary is to be said 3 times in the morning, consecrating the day to Blessed Mother, and 3 times in the evening before going to bed, consecrating the night to Blessed Mother.

"By thy Immaculate Conception, O Mary, make my body pure and my soul holy." Hail Mary... x3

May we have the devotion to Mary God has meant us to have!

All of you are in my prayers, especially at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Pastor's Corner

Dear Faithful,

We celebrated the feast of the Assumption of Our Blessed Mother into heaven this past week. Each of her feasts should be most special to us. Our Lord gave her to us as a means of getting closer to Him. There is a practice among certain religious to write Blessed Mother a letter expressing one's deepest spiritual needs or one's struggles and making a novena asking for her help in the days leading to her feast. It is a beautiful way to prepare for her feasts and many a religious has sworn by it: "Remember O Most Gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thy intercession was left unaided..." Our Lady's feast days are an occasion for us to re-evaluate where our Marian devotion stands.

Let us consider that while Our Lord was agonizing on the Cross, He needed to pull Himself up to breathe (asphyxiation being the cause of death by crucifixion). Consider, then, the pain and suffering it took for Him to speak. Yet He spoke to all of us in the person of St. John when He said: "Behold your Mother." We behold her, and we look to her whose Immaculate Heart is so pleasing to the Lord. Her life was a complete offering to God. "Behold the handmaid of the Lord," "My soul magnifies the Lord," "Do whatever He tells you," "And by the cross of Jesus stood His Mother." It is God's will that She should occupy a prominent place in our hearts and our spiritual lives.

Where does my Marian devotion stand? Do I enter her Immaculate Heart to adore the Sacred Heart of her Son? Do I enter His Sacred Heart to love her Immaculate Heart? Does She influence and elevate my relationship with God?

There are many ways in which we can foster a devotion to the Blessed Mother: the total consecration to Mary, the faithful and daily recitation of the Holy Rosary, the devotion of the 1st Saturdays of the month, and the list goes on and on.

There is another devotion that is not known enough: the three Hail Marys devotion. Many saints practiced it, (St. Mechtilde, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Leonard of Port-Maurice, St. Gertrude, St. Alphonsus) each in slightly different ways. It is a bulwark for the virtue of purity. I personally find the way of St. Al-
