actions” (no. 37). Of these, abortion is the “preeminent priority because it directly attacks life itself, because it takes place within the sanctuary of the family, and because of the number of lives destroyed” (Faithful Citizenship, Introductory Letter). Since the 1973 Roe v. Wade decision, there have been more than 61 million abortions in our country. Other issues of grave moral importance “undercut the dignity of the human person” (nos. 22, 23). Our priority must be to protect life to the fullest extent possible.

These principles spell it out quite clearly.

Please know that you and your families are in my prayers, especially at the Altar of Our Lord.

A Different Kind of Political Engagement

Their Excellencies, Bishop Knestout & Bishop Burbidge have written a nice letter regarding the moral obligations of the Catholic faithful when voting in political elections. Please see this letter on the vestibule bulletin board.

Pastor's Corner

Dear Faithful,

Why does someone attend a traditional parish? I would think it is because there is a deep desire for reverence, for sacredness, for what the Church has always taught and for the way the Church has always prayed.

The elections are around the corner and there is a lot at stake.

I would like to assume every parishioner of St. Joseph's is on the same page as to what the Church teaches and how this teaching should form our consciences well. From well-formed consciences, we can make good moral choices and vote as a Catholic should.

Just in case though, I will quote their Excellencies Bishops Knestout and Burbidge on the matter in the letter we posted the past month:

We offer three main points:

- Many issues are important.
- Not all issues have equal moral weight.
- Protecting life is paramount.

As bishops responsible for the pastoral care of the faithful in our two dioceses, we re-offer these points here for your continued prayerful consideration, as an essential framework not only for the critical voting decisions that must be made each year but also for the vital prayer and advocacy that must be done on a constant basis.

Whenever human dignity is at stake for any of our brothers and sisters in the human family, we must be attentive and engaged. "[R]espect for the dignity of every person ... is the core of Catholic moral and social teaching" (Faithful Citizenship, no. 10).

Our moral obligation to oppose intrinsically evil acts – which are “always incompatible with love of God and neighbor” (Faithful Citizenship, no. 22) – “has a special claim on our consciences and our

The Month of the Holy Souls

On all the days from November 1 through November 8 inclusive, a plenary indulgence, applicable only to the Poor Souls, is granted (under the usual conditions*) to those who visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed. Partial indulgences are granted to those who recite Lauds or Vespers of the Office of the Dead, and to those who recite the prayer “Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis. Requiescant in pace” (“Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace”).

Nov. 2—All Souls Day

On this feast, priests may say three Masses. Fr. Franco will say Low Masses at 7 am, 7:30 am, and 8 am (times approximate). All are welcome to attend any or all of these Masses, but are reminded that the faithful are only permitted to receive the Blessed Sacrament twice in one day.

Fr. Marsolle will say a High Mass at 10 am for the repose of the soul of our founding pastor, Fr. Adrian Harmening, O.S.B. Fr. Marsolle will also say Low Masses at 12:30 pm and 6 pm.

Also on this feast, a plenary indulgence, applicable only to the Poor Souls, is granted (under the usual conditions) to those who visit any parish church or public oratory and there recite one Our Father and one Credo.

All Souls Day Mass Intentions

On Indulgences

- A. Indulgences, which remove temporal punishment due to forgiven sin, may be gained by the living for themselves or applied to the souls in purgatory but they cannot be applied to other living persons.
- B. Indulgences are called plenary if they remove all temporal punishment and partial if they remove only some of it.
- C. A plenary indulgence can be acquired only once in the course of a day but a partial indulgence may be acquired more than once a day.
- D. To gain an indulgence for oneself one must be baptized, in the state of grace at least at the completion of the prescribed work and subject to the one granting the indulgence. He must also have at least a general intention of gaining them and must perform the works enjoined at the time and in the manner prescribed.
- E. “To acquire a plenary indulgence,” the 1999 Enchiridion of Indulgences, issued by the Sacred Penitentiary, states, “it is necessary to perform the work to which the indulgence is attached and to fulfill the following three conditions: sacramental confession, eucharistic Communion, and prayer for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff. It is further required that all attachment to sin, even venial sin, be absent.
“If the latter disposition is in any way less than perfect or if the prescribed three conditions are not fulfilled, the indulgence will be partial only...”
- F. The three conditions may be fulfilled several days before or after the performance of the prescribed work; it is, however, fitting that Communion be received and the prayer for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff be said on the same day the work is performed. The condition of sacramental confession may be fulfilled within a period of about twenty days before or after the work is performed.
