Online Giving

Thank you for your continued and very edifying generosity; the Parish depends on it. We are trying to reduce operating costs, but unfortunately they cannot be eliminated. We encourage you to create an account on our online giving site: stjosephrichmond.weshareonline.org For help or questions, please don't hesitate to contact the office via email or phone. Donations can also be mailed to the church via USPS or dropped in the letter slot of the parish office door.

Urgent Need

St. Peter's food pantry is in need of non-perishable food items: pop-top cans of tuna, chicken, soup, vegetables, as well as peanut butter, pasta sauce, etc. Food can be left in the bin in the vestibule of St. Joseph's. Thank you for your help in this work of mercy!

Crisis Pregnancy Help

A 24-hour helpline offers peer counselling and referral to local resources; operated by Heartbeat International. optionline.org or 800-712-HELP (4357)

Easter Sunday Schedule

Confessions are available at 9 am & 2 pm. The Church is open for private prayer during these times. Mass is being live streamed at 9 am & 11 am.

Live Streaming

We are live streaming the liturgies during the civil ban on public gatherings. Daily Masses can be watched through Facebook, the St. Joseph blog, or YouTube. Links are available on www.stjosephrichmond.org

Parish Blog with Daily Videos

In an effort to provide you with some spiritual support and guidance in these troubling times and to update you on the developing situation, we have created a blog. <https://stjoseph828.wixsite.com/stjosephblog>

Upcoming Events
All events cancelled until further notice.

Mass Intentions

While all public Masses have been cancelled, parishioner Mass intentions are still being offered daily at the priests' private Masses. We will continue to schedule and publish intentions, and requests can still be made via the envelopes available in the parish vestibules.

Hours for Private Prayer

Unless otherwise announced, the church is open Monday—Friday: 7 am to 12:30 pm; Saturday: 8 am to 1 pm; Sunday 8 am to 6 pm. Please follow the directional signs to enter, and be sure to exit by the same doors. We are restricted to no more than 10 people at a time; there are porters stationed at the entrance to keep accurate count.

Confession Times

Temporary confessionals are prepared to follow civil guidelines on distance. The priests are hearing confessions Monday—Friday (for 30 min) at 7 am, 9 am, and 12 noon. Saturday: 10 to 12 noon. Sunday at 8 am, 10 am, and 2 pm, except when announced otherwise.

Volunteers Needed

All cleaning crews are cancelled during this time. However, we are in need of cleaning volunteers to sanitize the Church after we lock the doors. We also need PORTERS who will man the door throughout the day and ensure we stay below the civil 10 person limit. Contact the office to volunteer.

Assistance for the Elderly & Homebound

Among our parish family are many elderly and shut ins who are having difficulty getting groceries and other necessities delivered. To assist in this corporal work of mercy or if you are in need of this kind of assistance, please email or call the office.

Pastor's Corner

Dear Faithful,

This Easter morning may not very much feel like Easter... It will certainly seem like the involuntary penances of Lent will continue for some foreseeable time.

St. Luke describes the scene of Our Lord during the agony in the garden of Gethsemane: "And when He rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, He found them sleeping for sorrow. And he said to them: Why sleep you? arise, pray, lest you enter into temptation."

We must not let the present anxious uncertainty drive us into a sorrowful torpor. Our Lord tells us (and I summarize): "Pray, pray, pray! Don't grow weary of it. Remember, I am with you, until the consummation of the world."

I am very much a fan of the method of St. Louis de Montfort to pray the Rosary. After each mystery, he teaches us to ask, through the intercession of Our Lady, that the mystery contemplated take place in the sanctuary of our souls. In a way, this is what the liturgy sets out to do. It helps us "relieve" the mysteries essential to our salvation, to make them our own and it does so in measure of our faith.

Although circumstances beyond our control make it that we cannot participate in the beautiful liturgies of this time, can we still reap all the graces of this time? Can the mystery of the Risen Christ take place in the sanctuary of our souls? Certainly. In measure of our faith, in measure of our fidelity to prayer, in measure of our love for Our Savior.

In this way, I wish you a very happy and blessed Easter!

May Our Risen Lord strengthen our faith, sustain our hope and increase our love.

Please know that you and your families are in my prayers, especially at the Altar of Our Lord.
