March for Life

In a recent letter to the parishes, His Excellency Bishop Knestout announced, "This year the COVID-19 pandemic will alter our ability to participate in the March for Life. While individuals and families can always choose to attend the March on their own or with members of their communities, in 2021 parishes and Diocesan sponsored groups will not be organizing trips to the March for Life via charter bus. The reality of the pandemic has made this mode of transportation prohibitive for this year." The full letter and alternative diocesan plans are available at: <https://www.cdrcmfl.org/respect-life/2021-march-for-life/>

Sanctity of Human Life Sunday—Jan. 17th

Pastor's Corner

Dear Faithful,

As we revel in the mysteries of the Incarnation of Our Savior and His Epiphany, may we imitate the Three Kings in their worship. They came from afar, on a long and perilous journey to bring Our Lord their gifts. They were corresponding to grace. They were seeking the True King. Their following of the star guiding them to Our Lord is a symbol of the role faith should play in our lives.

Epiphany water was blessed on the eve of the feast and is available. Please find below the blessing for the entrance of your home with the blessed Epiphany chalk.

Here is a little tutorial on what should be done at the main entrances of your homes:

-The finished inscription should look like this:

20 + C + M + B + 21

- The following words in bold are spoken aloud by the head of the family. As he speaks, he writes the part of the inscription listed in italics.

The three wise men,

Caspar, C

Melchior, M

and Balthasar, B

followed the star of God's Son who became man

two thousand 20

twenty-one years ago. 21

Crosses are added from left to right as follows:

May Christ bless our dwelling, +

& remain with us throughout the new year, +

& grant that our comings and goings +

will be in search of truth. +

Almighty God, incline your ear. May you bless us and all who are gathered here. Send your holy angel who will defend us and fill with grace all who live here. Amen.

Thank you for your generosity. Please know that you and your families are in my prayers, especially at the Altar of Our Lord.

Fr. Karl Marsolle FSSP
