Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

God willed us to live in these our strange times. He also foresaw from all eternity that we would gather for worship at the altar of a church under the patronage of His beloved Saint Joseph. This means that from all eternity, God wanted me to have a special relationship with this great saint. What role does Saint Joseph play in my life? Do I have a devotion to this most wonderful father? Do I ask him for his guidance, his help and his protection? Do I try to imitate his virtues? Saint Joseph is a gift from God. He is a channel through which God desires to pour so many graces.

Saint Joseph is one of the greatest saints of the Mystical Body of Christ. He is a saint we need, especially in our troubled times. We live in one of the most effeminate, subjective, materialistic and toxic societies to have ever existed. Saint Joseph was the provider and the strong and loving protector of the Holy Family. He was chosen by God as His representative in the Holy Family. He was entrusted the Immaculate Conception and God-incarnate. Saint Joseph was a man of commitment. We never hear a complaint from him (We actually never hear him say a word in the Gospels!) His objective was the will of God, no matter the cost to himself, no matter the circumstances, no matter the difficulties encountered and no matter the sacrifices required. He stepped up manfully. We need all the help we can get and especially his!

There is a book I would like to recommend to everyone, and deem obligatory to all men of our parish: Consecration to St Joseph by Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC.

Please know that you and your families are in my prayers, especially at the Altar of Our Lord.

Fr. Karl Marsolle FSSP

P.S. I would like to express to all of you my sincere gratitude for your generosity and support to our parish. May God reward you!
