

Corner Cont.

ner, this type of thing was not uncommon before the shutdown.

As the current regulations seem to relax a bit and we are able to have slightly larger gatherings, please protect your children by supervising them. You owe it to God and to them. Where are they? Who are they with? Is there someone responsible and trustworthy keeping an eye on them? I have heard more than enough horror stories to convince me that no place is safe and that predators are opportunists. We are at fault if we present opportunities. Not to be paranoid, but vigilance is a must.

Our Lord said: "But he that shall scandalize one of these little ones that believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone should be hanged about his neck, and that he should be drowned in the depth of the sea."

Please know that you and your families are in my prayers, especially at the Altar of Our Lord.

Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

There are 2 things I wanted to share with you—one spiritual and the other practical.

For the spiritual, this is something Mother Teresa said to her sisters:

"I worry some of you still have not really met Jesus—one to one—you and Jesus alone. We may spend time in the chapel—but have you seen with the eyes of your soul how He looks at you with love? Do you really know the living Jesus—not from books but from being with Him in your heart? Have you heard the loving words He speaks to you? Ask for the grace; He is longing to give it. Until you can hear Jesus in the silence of your own heart, you will not be able to hear Him saying 'I Thirst' in the hearts of the poor. Never give up this daily intimate contact with Jesus as the real living person—not just the idea."

How beautiful are her words, and how true! We cannot discern Christ in our neighbor unless we are first well acquainted with Him in the silence of our hearts. Silent prayer time with a heart to heart with God is so essential. Hopefully, we carve out the time for it daily.

For the practical point now: A few Sundays ago, I had come out of the confessional after Mass and was speaking to people in the hallway. A concerned parishioner approached and said : "Father, there are kids running on your roof!" I thought he must have been joking ... nope ... no joke, there were kids running on the roof.

One of these past Sundays, when I was done with the last confessions a while after Mass ended, I went back to the Sacristy to prepare the vestments for the next Mass. I heard noise from the back hallway and went to check it out: 3 little kids by themselves, unsupervised, just exploring the most remote corners of the building. I have to say, even after mentioning it several times from the pulpit and the pastor's cor-
