Parishioner Needs Assistance

Homebound parishioner in need of assistance with basic household tasks. Thank you to those who have already volunteered. Please contact the office if you are able to help out.

Corporal Works of Mercy

- A team of volunteers is producing sleeping mats to assist other parishes in their homeless outreach programs. Please see the poster and bins in Fr. Adrian Hall. For more info email dulcevillarroel@yahoo.com
- St. Peter's programs for the homeless need volunteers and are still in need of various items. Please take a list, available on the bin in the main vestibule, to see what items are urgently needed.

"Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's; and to God, the things that are God's."

Pastor's Corner

Dear parishioners,

Two things:

Voting: I was looking at the news and upcoming things locally. The elections for the new governor of Virginia are coming up. I am not a citizen of the U.S. yet so I cannot vote, but I am a pastor for many people who can. There is a lot at stake, especially when we consider the extent of a governor's power, as we witnessed this past year. Although I don't understand the intricacies of it, unfortunately it seems the Church cannot come right out and tell you who to vote for by name without consequence. Be that as it may, looking at the most probable options for this election, if you are a good practicing Catholic who knows your Faith and your principles well, it takes all of 2 seconds to know which candidate you should vote for. It's a no-brainer.

Prayer life: Remember your non-negotiables for your spiritual life. Structure your prayer life: Morning offering, spiritual reading, concentrated prayer time with Our Lord (mental prayer), Rosary, evening prayer, examination of conscience... This is the best preparation for whatever trials come our way. It is also the best guarantee to persevere in fidelity to Our Lord 'til the end. May we daily accomplish our part in God's invitation: "If you are weary and burdened, come to me, I will give you rest."

Thank you for your continued generosity to our parish and for your prayerful support to your priests! Please know that you and your families are in my prayers, especially at the Altar of Our Lord.

Fr. Karl Marsolle FSSP

The Month of the Holy Souls

On all the days from November 1 through November 8 inclusive, a plenary indulgence, applicable only to the Poor Souls, is granted (under the usual conditions*) to those who visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed. Partial indulgences are granted to those who recite Lauds or Vespers of the Office of the Dead, and to those who recite the prayer “Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis. Requiescant in pace” (“Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace”).

Nov. 2—All Souls Day

On this feast, priests may say three Masses. We have scheduled Low Masses at 7 am, 7:30 am, and 8 am (times approximate), as well as 12 noon, 12:30 pm, and 1 pm (times approximate). The High Mass is at 6 pm.

All are welcome to attend any or all of these Masses, but are reminded that the faithful are only permitted to receive the Blessed Sacrament twice in one day.

Also on this feast, a plenary indulgence, applicable only to the Poor Souls, is granted (under the usual conditions) to those who visit any parish church or public oratory and there recite one Our Father and one Credo.

All Souls Day Mass Intentions

If you contribute online and wish to submit a list of names to be remembered in the Masses, please email the parish office:

On Indulgences

- A. Indulgences, which remove temporal punishment due to forgiven sin, may be gained by the living for themselves or applied to the souls in purgatory but they cannot be applied to other living persons.
- B. Indulgences are called plenary if they remove all temporal punishment and partial if they remove only some of it.
- C. A plenary indulgence can be acquired only once in the course of a day but a partial indulgence may be acquired more than once a day.
- D. To gain an indulgence for oneself one must be baptized, in the state of grace at least at the completion of the prescribed work and subject to the one granting the indulgence. He must also have at least a general intention of gaining them and must perform the works enjoined at the time and in the manner prescribed.
- E. “To acquire a plenary indulgence,” the 1999 Enchiridion of Indulgences, issued by the Sacred Penitentiary, states, “it is necessary to perform the work to which the indulgence is attached and to fulfill the following three conditions: sacramental confession, eucharistic Communion, and prayer for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff. It is further required that all attachment to sin, even venial sin, be absent.
“If the latter disposition is in any way less than perfect or if the prescribed three conditions are not fulfilled, the indulgence will be partial only...”
- F. The three conditions may be fulfilled several days before or after the performance of the prescribed work; it is, however, fitting that Communion be received and the prayer for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff be said on the same day the work is performed. The condition of sacramental confession may be fulfilled within a period of about twenty days before or after the work is performed.
