

Corner Cont.

-According to FSSP standards, St. Joseph is definitely a 3 priest parish. I have been asking my superiors for extra help (for my sanity and your spiritual well-being). We should be receiving a third priest in early December and my hope is that it is permanent. Deo Gratias!

Thank you, dear parishioners, for your generosity and your support, both temporal and spiritual. Please know that you and your families are in my prayers, especially at the Altar of Our Lord.

Fr. Karl Marsolle FSSP

Irish Heritage Presentation

Mon. 29 Nov, 7 pm via Zoom, John Countryman, Ph.D., Emeritus Professor of Fine Arts at Berry College, will speak about the Irish National War Memorial, and the Irish enlisted men killed in the First World War, fighting for Britain. Corporal Works of Mercy

- To help produce sleeping mats for the homeless, please see the display in Fr. Adrian Hall. Info: dulcevallarroel@yahoo.com
- St. Peter's programs for the homeless need volunteers and are still in need of various items. Please take a list, available on the bin in the main vestibule, to see what items are urgently needed.

Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

Some updates and news:

-Fr. Harkins arrived in Texas and is getting settled in. From what I have witnessed and heard, he has certainly left his mark here. We will miss his help, his sermons, his humor... and his haircut! Please keep him and his new parishioners in your prayers.

-The financial report for St. Joseph parish is printed and copies are available on the vestibule bulletin board. Please look it over. The numbers speak for themselves. I am humbled by your generosity. So many parishes have been struggling since the shutdown last year, both financially and with attendance. We can count our blessings. May the Good Lord reward you abundantly.

-I would like to thank all the volunteers who came in great numbers for our outside Fall clean-up. What a difference and an improvement your work has made!

-As you know, parts of our building are now ancient. There are constant repairs and replacements needed. Here is a list of our most recent repairs/replacements: new doors on 6 different entries (paint job on the metal doors pending), courtyard fixed (no more flooding in the building after torrential rains), vestibule AC had a compressor replaced. Plus there is all the scheduled maintenance and checkups for the building (alarms, our beloved boiler, electric...)

-The construction world has been shaken by the shutdown. The supply and demand on materials caused prices to skyrocket; some have come down, but unfortunately everything seems to be on backorder. We are inching closer to several projects while others are on the back burner:

- Playground/field/picnic area (the county is finishing their review and requirements. Once that is done, grading can begin.)
- New storage shed for our outside equipment
- Gutters for the North side and the front entrance of the building
- New AC unit for one wing of the building
- Sanctuary project (gold-leafing and patterns)
- Small chapel to be gutted and renovated
