Pastor's Corner

Dear Faithful,

Advent is flying by. In the secular world, the following weeks will be busy with making all the preparations for the upcoming celebrations. It is so easy to get caught up in: sales, trips, family visiting, food, gifts, etc. In proportion, do we stop and give Our Lord the time of day? In the midst of all the busyness and noise, how easy it is to let time pass by without even considering Our Lord. Do our non-negotiables for fostering and maintaining a close relationship with Christ fall by the wayside? This Advent will not come around again. God may give us more in the years to come, but this one will not come around again. We must prepare our hearts. The following is the Preface for Advent (which connoisseurs can locate in their hand Missals):

“It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times and places give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, almighty Father, eternal God, through Christ our Lord; for in Thy mercy and fidelity Thou hast promised Him as Savior to the lost race of men, to instruct the ignorant with His truth, justify the wicked with His holiness, and help the weak by His power. Now that the time draweth nigh that He Whom Thou art to send should come, and the day of our liberation should dawn, with faith in Thy promises, we rejoice with holy exultation. And therefore with the Angels and Archangels, with the Thrones and Dominions, and with all the hosts of the heavenly army, we sing a hymn to Thy glory, evermore saying: — Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus!”

May this be an accurate description of the dispositions of our hearts!

Please know that you and your families are in my prayers, especially at the Altar of Our Lord.

Fr. Karl Marsolle FSSP
