

Corner Cont.

I hope we have all made a practical list of non-negotiables for Lent regarding the structure of our daily prayer life, our spiritual reading and the practice of some penances to train our wills to cling to God. It's the season to really try!

Please know that you and your families are in my prayers, especially at the Altar of Our Lord.

Fr. Karl Marsolle FSSP

Pastor’s Corner

Dear Faithful,

As we keep on navigating through Lent, let us keep in mind our purpose and final end. Here is a beautiful reflection by Fr. Gabriel of St. Mary Magdalen, OCD to help us renew our Lenten resolve:

"O Lord, you have created me for Yourself; grant that, with all my strength, I may tend towards you, my last end."

In the book of Ezekiel (34:11-16) we read: "For thus says the Lord: behold I Myself will seek my sheep, and will visit them... and will deliver them out of all the places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day... I will bring them to their own land, and I will feed them in the mountains of Israel... there they shall rest on the Green grass." This is the program which the Lord wishes to accomplish in our souls during the holy season of lent, in order to lead us by means of it to a life of higher perfection and closer intimacy with Him. He stretches out his hand to us, not only to save us from dangers, but also to help us climb to those higher places where He Himself will nourish us. The point of departure which will make the realization of this divine plan possible is a new conversion on our part: we must collect our powers, desires, and affections, which have been scattered and are lingering in the valley of the purely human; putting them all together, we must make them converge on God, our one last end. In this sense, our Lenten conversion should consist in a generous determination to put ourselves more resolutely in the way of perfection. It means a new determination to become a saint. The desire for sanctity is the mainspring of the spiritual life, the more intense and real this desire is in us, the more it will urge us to pledge ourselves totally. In this beginning of Lent we must try to arouse and strengthen our resolution to become a saint. If other efforts in the past have been unsuccessful or have not entirely reached our goal, this is no reason for discouragement. "Now I begin." Let us repeat it humbly, and may the experience of our past failures make us place our trust in God alone.
