What can YOU do to protect preborn children?

- Pray, fast and offer sacrifice for the conversion of minds and hearts.
- Advocate for pro-life laws by contacting your legislators and joining the Virginia Catholic Conference advocacy network. (visit www.vacatholic.org & click "Join us!").
- Support initiatives that ensure compassionate care and support for children both before and after their birth, and for their mothers and families. To learn more about all the services provided by the Catholic dioceses in Virginia visit www.vacatholic.org/resources and click "Diocesan-Affiliated Pregnancy Resources in Virginia."
- Learn how you can offer care and support for those suffering after abortion (same link as above).

Please know that you and your families are in my prayers, especially at the Altar of Our Lord.

Upcoming Events

Cleaning Help Needed

There are currently ~1,000 parishioners who attend Sunday Masses. Our priests offer Masses 14 times per week, confessions for over 13 hours per week and in conjunction with other duties and obligations, they don’t have time for much else. We could definitely use a few more volunteers to help us clean and keep our church in good condition. If you are able to help, please email our Volunteer Coordinator, Michelle Blake: volunteer@stjosephrichmond.org

A Note from Our Outdoor Team

Dear parishioners, we are in need of your help and donations as we prepare for our annual Fall Beautification Day on 24 Sept. If you are unable to physically be here helping on the grounds, would you consider donating a roll of HEAVY DUTY weed control fabric? There is a box by the office for your donations, as well as envelopes if you would rather donate money to the endeavor. Thank you and God bless you all!

Changes to our Giving Site

WeShare.com has updated their system. If you experience any issues with logging in or confusion about how to donate, you can call the parish office, or contact WeShare directly at (877) 316-0260. May God reward your continued generosity!

Pastor’s Corner

Dear Faithful,

The overturn of Roe v. Wade by the Supreme Court is of momentous importance. Although it is a necessary step in the right direction for our country, the battle is far from over. In the article below given by the Virginia Catholic Conference, you can see the sad state of affairs as it stands in Virginia and what we can do practically to protect life.

The State of Abortion Laws in Virginia
What did the U.S. Supreme Court decide?

Dobbs v. Jackson Women’s Health Organization overturned Roe v. Wade and Planned Parenthood v. Casey. Which means...

- There is NO federal constitutional “right” to abortion.
- The power is restored to the people and their elected representatives to protect the dignity and rights of the human person from the moment of conception by enacting life-affirming laws in their states and in Congress.
- While some states have already implemented total or near total limits on abortion, more than half of states – including Virginia – have few or no limits on abortion.

What are the current abortion laws in Virginia?

Virginia has very few limits on abortion:

- 1st trimester: No limits, and even certain non-physicians may perform the abortion.
- 2nd trimester: No limits, except that the abortion must be performed in a hospital by a physician.
- 3rd trimester: The abortion must be performed in a hospital by a physician, and the physician and two consulting physicians must certify that “the continuation of the pregnancy is likely to result in the death of the woman or substantially and irremediably impair the mental or physical health of the woman.” The broad “mental health” language makes this requirement largely ineffective.

Virginia also has a ban on partial-birth abortion and, subject to exceptions that can be granted only through a judicial process, requires parental consent for minors to obtain an abortion.
