

Corner Cont.

-Can the souls in Purgatory pray and obtain blessings for those on earth?

Yes, they certainly can, as they are united to the Church Militant in the Communion of Saints.

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the Mercy of God, rest in peace.

Fr. Karl Marsolle FSSP

Broken Votive Glass

Please do not move candles from one glass cup to another in our votive stands. Doing so increases the risk of broken glass. All children must be supervised when near the votive stands.

FSSP Annual Appeal

Self-addressed, postage paid envelopes are available at the back of the church. Payment options and instructions are listed on the envelope. May God reward your generosity!

Advent Mission: 28 Nov - 30 Nov

We are excited to host Fr. Joseph Tuscan, OFM Cap. as he gives an Advent Mission here at the parish. Mass at 9 am and 6 pm, Mon, Tues, & Wed, each followed by a reflection. The morning and evening talks are the same to allow more parishioners to attend. Confessions before each Mass and after the evening talk Mon & Tues. Light reception following the evening talk on Wed. We encourage you to come to all three days of the mission, but each daily talk does stand on its own.

Sacramental Emergency Phone Number

This number is always printed on the front of our bulletin. It is to be used when someone is in danger of death and needs a priest for the Sacraments.

Irish History Presentation

Wed. 9 Nov, 6:30 pm at the Clover Hill Chesterfield Library, John Countryman, Ph.D., Emeritus Professor of Fine Arts at Berry College, will speak about the history of "Ireland's Alcatraz," Spike Island in Cork Harbor. The island has hosted a 6th century Monastery, a 24-acre Fortress, and the largest convict depot in the world in Victorian times. It was most prominently a garrison and prison during the Irish War of Independence. Refreshments and discussion to follow the presentation. 6701 Deer Run Road, Midlothian, Virginia 23112 All are welcome. For info or questions: AOH.Kelly@gmail.com

Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

We are part of the Church Militant here below, in this valley of tears. We honor the Church Triumphant on the feast of All Saints' (November 1st). We remember in our prayers and sacrifices the Church Suffering, i.e., all the Holy Souls in Purgatory.

We just covered Fr. Hardon's chapter on Purgatory in the RCIA class. Here are some excerpts that will help us remember our faithful departed, especially this month of November:

- What is Purgatory?

Purgatory is a state or condition in which the souls of the just, who die with the stains of sin, are cleansed before they are admitted to heaven. This cleansing is necessary, for "nothing unclean may come into it..." (Revelations 21:27)

In the above definition, "the just" are those who die in the state of grace. "Stains of sin" refer to the temporal punishment still due to venial or forgiven mortal sins.

-Are the souls in Purgatory saved?

Yes, the souls in Purgatory are certain they are saved. It is for this reason that their suffering is only temporary. They experience the pain of temporary loss of the vision of God.

The sufferings of Purgatory are more intense than any suffering on earth. The souls in Purgatory cannot make satisfaction for their sins as merit is possible only during one's lifetime on earth. They do however experience intense spiritual joy because they are absolutely sure of their salvation.

-How can the faithful on earth help the souls in Purgatory?

The faithful on earth can help by their suffrages, that is, through the Sacrifice of the Mass, prayers, almsgiving, and every kind of good work. We have a duty of justice and charity to help the souls in Purgatory.

-Can we invoke the souls in Purgatory?

Yes, we can invoke the souls in Purgatory and are encouraged to ask them with the confidence of being heard. They understand our needs and are extremely grateful for the prayers and sacrifices we offer on their behalf.
