

Corner Cont.

Sincerely in Christ,
Most Reverend Barry C. Knestout
Bishop of Richmond

This means there are some norms implemented in the Richmond diocese. For our parish, St Joseph's, it is business as usual. We were kindly told in a decree: "The present norms do not impact the parishes of St. Benedict Catholic Church, Chesapeake or Saint Joseph Catholic Church, Richmond, which are ably served by the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter." For this, we are especially grateful.

Please know that you and your families are in my prayers, especially at the Altar of Our Lord.

Fr. Karl Marsolle FSSP

Broken Votive Glass

Please do not move candles from one glass cup to another in our votive stands. Doing so increases the risk of broken glass. All children must be supervised when near the votive stands.

FSSP Annual Appeal

Self-addressed, postage paid envelopes are available at the back of the church. Payment options and instructions are listed on the envelope. May God reward your generosity!

Advent Mission: 28 Nov - 30 Nov

We are excited to host Fr. Joseph Tuscan, OFM Cap. as he gives an Advent Mission here at the parish. Mass at 9 am and 6 pm, Mon, Tues, & Wed, each followed by a reflection. The morning and evening talks are the same to allow more parishioners to attend. Confessions before each Mass and after the evening talk Mon & Tues. Light reception following the evening talk on Wed. We encourage you to come to all three days of the mission, but each daily talk does stand on its own.

Parish Mission Novena

Prayer cards are available on the back table of the church as we prepare for our Advent Mission. The novena begins Sat., 19 Nov.

Pastor's Corner

Dear Faithful,
Please find below His Excellency Bishop Knestout's statement on the motu proprio Traditionis Custodes, as posted on the diocesan website:

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On July 16, 2021, Pope Francis issued the Apostolic Letter motu proprio, Traditionis Custodes, issuing new norms governing the celebration of the Mass according to the Missal of 1962.

At the time of the motu proprio and the subsequent release of the Responsa ad Dubia, published by the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments on December 18, 2021, I instructed the priests presently celebrating the antecedent liturgy that they were free to continue supporting the communities utilizing this form of the Mass, after requesting permission from me personally. At that time, I relayed to the communities that a time of study and reflection would commence in order to determine the most appropriate course of action to remain faithful to the Holy Father's directives.

In June 2022, I requested permission for several parishes to continue the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass in their parish churches. Following a response on July 6, 2022, from the Dicastery for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, I am implementing the motu proprio in the Diocese of Richmond.

The Very Reverend Brian W. Capuano, J.C.L., Vicar for Vocations and Interim Director of the Office of Worship has been delegated to care for the communities attached to the Missal of 1962 and will assist these communities and the priests designated to assist them in the proper ordering of the Mass in fidelity to the directives issued by the Holy Father in Traditionis Custodes.

While I recognize that these new directives will result in some changes to the liturgical life in a few of our parishes, I invite the faithful to a robust adherence to the Gospel and the teaching of the Church.

May we pray together for the grace of the Holy Spirit to enliven our faith through the sacred liturgy as we seek a unity in liturgical practice and fidelity to the Church.
