living costs (tuition, textbooks, insurance, travel, personal expenses).

Our parish will certainly assist them as we can. I am blown away by your generosity to Our Lady of Guadalupe Seminary fund every month. Part of these donations will be employed to cover Paul's tuition costs.

If you see our seminarians (Paul, Sam, or guest seminarians), you might want to ask if they need any help in covering some of the costs relating to their formation.

Let us keep all six of our parish's vocations in our prayers. Needless to say, they keep our parish, families and intentions very much in theirs!

Thank you for your prayers and your support. Blessed be God!

Lord, please grant us many holy priests and religious vocations!

Please know that you and your families are in my prayers, especially at the Altar of Our Lord.

Fr. Karl Marsolle FSSP

Rental Home Needed

Mary's Choice RVA, a maternity home for pregnant women, is in desperate need of a residence/house for the pregnant women we serve. We are looking for a house with multiple rooms and a separate built in mother-in-law suite in the main house or an adjacent house on the same property. If you have a large property with multiple rooms that you are willing to rent or donate to us, please contact Mary's Choice RVA at 804 878-3215 or at maryschoice@maryschoicerva.org.

Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

I have been meaning to write a corner on parish vocations. Due to some recent news, I thought this would be a good occasion.

As of now, six vocations have issued from St. Joseph Parish. This includes:

- Fr. Neal Nichols FSSP (Pastor, Chesapeake, VA)
- Fr. Matthew Bean (Diocese of Charlotte)
- Sister Marie-Hélène (Sisters of the Visitation in Rockville, VA)

-Sister Geneviève (Carmelite Monastery in Fairfield, PA)

-Mr. Paul Kemp (FSSP, Our Lady of Guadalupe Seminary in Denton, NE)

That's right! It is my joy to announce that our head Master of Ceremonies and president of the St. Stephen Altar Guild, Mr. Paul Kemp, has applied and been accepted into the Fraternity seminary in Nebraska.

If you have attended the 7 am Low Mass during the week within the past three years or attended Solemn High Masses for big parish occasions, you have certainly seen Paul serve very reverently at the Altar. His acceptance into seminary is an honor for our parish.

Both of our seminarians, Paul & Sam, are in the process of discerning God's call to the Eternal Priesthood of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

-Paul earned a Bachelor's in Accounting from the College of William & Mary and a Master's in Accounting from Villanova University. He is set to begin his 1st year of the 7-year formation in Denton, NE at the end of the summer.

-Sam graduated from the University of Richmond with degrees in history and music. He was attending graduate school at George Mason University for European History when he discerned to apply for seminary for the Diocese of Richmond and to be a chaplain candidate for the army. He is beginning his second year in the Theological College in Washington D.C. and is co-sponsored with the Archdiocese for the Military Services as an army chaplain candidate.

As you can imagine, when a young man enters this process, he must leave his work in the world, which means there is no longer a source of income to cover
